ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

Of the

NO. 2017-03

Assignment of Cases Related to
Darweesh, et. al., v. Trump, et. al.,
Docket No. 17-cv-480

-----X

On Saturday, January 28, 2017, the above-captioned matter for an Emergency Stay of Removal was filed. In accord with the Guidelines for the Division of Business Among District Judges of this Court set forth in the Local Rules (“Guidelines”), the matter was handled by the United States District Judge assigned to handle emergency miscellaneous matters (the “Miscellaneous Duty Judge”) because it was after the regular business hours of the Court and it had not yet been assigned to any particular judge of the Court. Also pursuant to the Guidelines, the case was randomly assigned to a District Judge the next business day.

Pursuant to Local Rule 50.3.1(e) pertaining to the assignment of Related Civil Cases, based on the similarity of facts and legal issues and because the cases arise from the same transactions or events, and it appearing that a substantial saving of judicial resources is likely to result from assigning the cases to the same District Judge and Magistrate Judge,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, that all cases raising the same legal issues and claims brought by members or potential members of the proposed class of petitioners, as described in Darweesh, et. al., v. Trump, et. al., Docket No. 17-cv-480, are deemed related and shall be assigned to the District Judge and Magistrate Judge presiding over Darweesh, et. al., v. Trump, et. al.

SO ORDERED.

DATED: Brooklyn, New York
January 30, 2017

DORA L. IRIZARRY
Chief Judge
