

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

-----X

In Re: Abrogation of Administrative Order
2001-06, "In the Matter of Pro Se Petitions for Writs of Habeas Corpus"

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
2011-09

-----X

At a meeting of the Board of Judges on August 9, 2011, Administrative Order 2001-06, "In the Matter of Pro Se Petitions for Writs of Habeas Corpus", was abrogated.

All pro se petitions for writs of habeas corpus, whether brought under 28 U.S.C. § 2241, §2254 or §2255, will continue to be accepted for filing without delay. A petition submitted without either the appropriate fee or an in forma pauperis application may have that defect corrected by the petitioner within fourteen (14) days of filing. A reminder notice of this requirement will be mailed to the petitioner with an in forma pauperis application form by the Clerk's Office.

SO ORDERED.

Carol Bagley Amon
Chief Judge

Dated: Brooklyn, New York
August 18, 2011